

Nomination of Observers

ICM Triennial Council Meeting
Bali, Indonesia 17-19 June 2020

Each Member Association may nominate up to two observers.

Name of Member Association: _____

Country: _____

Telephone: _____

Email: _____

Observer 1

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

Email: _____

Observer 2

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

Email: _____

Signature: _____ President of the Association

Name: _____ President of the Association

(Please write in block letters)

Please note the following information:

There is a charge for each Council Observer place. Refer to the Appendix for more information.

Please complete and return this form to ICM Headquarters by Tuesday, 31 March 2020.

Email: council@internationalmidwives.org

International Confederation of Midwives

Koninginnegracht 60
2514 AE The Hague
The Netherlands

Please see next page for the Appendix and information and guidance

Appendix

As usual there is an observer fee to cover the cost of food and beverage and additional meeting space. The cost for two and a half days of Council Observance is:

- $ 300 (US$ Dollars) per person for high and very high-income development countries
- $ 250 (US$ Dollars) per person for low and medium development countries

If you have any questions, please contact the Council Administrator at council@internationalmidwives.org

These costs do not include flights, accommodation or any special visits or trips.

Information / Guidance

Definition of Observer

A person who attends Council to note proceedings but does not participate and has no voting rights.

ICM Constitution and By-Laws – Guidance

Meetings of Council

Article 12 (Constitution)

iv) All official delegates of Member Associations, the Board members and observers including all midwives belonging to a Member Association shall be eligible to attend meetings of the Council.

Article 12 (By-Laws)

4. At the beginning of the Council meeting lists of midwives, and other interested people wishing to observe the meeting, will be provided. Approval of their admission to the meeting venue will be taken as a third item of business. Observers are seated separately from the Council Delegates.

5. Members of Member Associations must have prior approval through their associations for attendance as observers at the Triennial Council meeting.

6. Other interested observers may attend Council meetings provided they apply to the Board for accreditation prior to its opening.